Yes, I'm 68!

Ruth Ann Harnisch uses comedy to turn girls into leaders.

Meet Ruth Ann

Why I love what I do:

Our program, Funny Girls, helps young women ages 8 to 13 come to recognize the power they have within them and learn how to use it through improv and creative play.

How my view of beauty has evolved:

It's more difficult as a younger woman to love the physical "container" you come in, but growing older has given me a great appreciation for my body.

My beauty essentials:

A mascara that makes my lashes visible, a moisturizer with SPF to soften my skin, and a deep berry lipcolor that stays put.

Improv is a fun way for girls to develop their confidence."
